Windſor, Auguſt 16.

THE humble Addreſs of the Biſhop, Dean, Chapter, and Clergy, of the Dioceſe of Salisbury: Preſented to Her Majeſty by his Grace the Lord Archbiſhop of Canterbury.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

IT is the peculiar Glory of Your Majeſty's Reign, that Your faithful Subjects have every Year new Occaſions given them to appear before You, with Hearts full of Joy, congratulating the great Bleſſings which God pours down on Your Majeſty, and on Your Councils, with ſuch ſingular Characters of His Favour and Protection, that both Your Majeſty and Your People, made happy by Your Means, are become the Wonder of the World.

The great Work of the Union of the whole Iſland, ſo often attempted with ſo little Succeſs, is now finiſhed and ſettled by Your Majeſty's tender Care and wiſe Management; ſo that, as our Church is with a juſt Gratitude acknowledged by the Repreſentatives of all Your Subjects, both Spiritual and Temporal, to be in a ſafe and flouriſhing Condition under Your Majeſty's Adminiſtration, we may now, upon this great Occaſion, affirm the ſame of the State, when we ſee this noble Foundation laid for the Security of the preſent and future Ages.

We promiſe to Your Majeſty, That we will endeavour all that lies in us, by a Friendly and Brotherly Correſpondence with all in this united Kingdom, to cultivate what is now ſo well begun, and that gives us a Proſpect of great Things to follow in the Ages to come; which will celebrate the Memory of our Great Queen, as the Original and Foundreſs of a New Empire.

May God ſtill continue to us theſe great Bleſſings which we enjoy under Your Majeſty; and may You reign long and happily over us. We will ever renew theſe our Prayers to Almighty God, and will live in all Duty and Loyalty towards Your Majeſty, in Oppoſition to all Your Enemies both at home and abroad.

The humble Addreſs of the High Sheriff, Cuſtos Rotulorum, Juſtices of the Peace, Deputy Lieutenants, and other Gentlemen and Freeholders, of the County of Angleſey; and of the Mayor, Recorder, Bayliffs, and Burgeſſes, of the ancient Borough of Beaumaris, in the ſaid County: Preſented to Her Majeſty by the Hon. Lieutenant General Cholmondeley, (in the Abſence of the Rt. Hon. the Earl of Cholmondeley, Lord Lieutenant of North-Wales;) introduced by the Rt. Hon. the Lord High Treaſurer.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

May it pleaſe Your Majeſty,

THE glorious Succeſſes of Your Majeſty's Arms abroad have hitherto been the cuſtomary Theme of our Addreſſes to Your Majeſty: Nor do we at all doubt, by the Bleſſing of God, 'ere long, to reſume the ſame Subject; only in this (we hope but) ſhort Interval of thoſe victorious Succeſſes, we humbly beg Leave to entertain Your Majeſty with a brief Mention of other Conqueſts made by Your Subjects, not over their Enemies but themſelves, by totally ſubduing, in Obedience to Your Majeſty, thoſe violent and hereditary Reluctances which for ſo many Ages effectually had, and, without Your Majeſty's irreſiſtable Influence, for ever might have, obſtructed the Union of Great Britain. And, now the great Work is done, That it may be fruitful of all thoſe happy Effects propoſed by it, and that Your Majeſty may long live to reap the Glory and Satisfaction of them, is the earneſt and inceſſant Prayer of Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects.

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Town-Clerk, Brethren, Capital Burgeſſes, and other Burgeſſes and Inhabitants, of Her Majeſty's ancient Borough of Derby, in the County of Derby: Preſented to Her Majeſty by the Rt. Hon. the Lord James Cavendiſh, one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

May it pleaſe Your moſt Sacred Majeſty,

WE Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, preſum'd formerly to lay before Your Majeſty the grateful Senſe we had of Your gracious Deſign to unite the then divided Parts of Great Britain into one Kingdom; and humbly declar'd our hearty Wiſhes for perfecting that mighty Work: We have ſince had the Happineſs to ſee the Accompliſhment of our Wiſhes, and the Pleaſure to obſerve the reſt of our Fellow Subjects to have the like juſt Senſe of ſo great a Bleſſing, in the univerſal Joy, and remarkable Unanimity, with which they have offer'd Your Majeſty their Thanks on this glorious Occaſion.

To have reſcued Europe, and united Britain; to have made Your People's Happineſs Your Aim, and to have ſurely attained what You piouſly deſign; will give Your Annals a particular Luſtre with all Poſterity. May it be the Endeavour of all Your Majeſty's Subjects, as it ſhall be ever ours, by a diſtinguiſhing Gratitude and ready Obedience, to eaſe in ſome Meaſure the Weight of Affairs You ſupport for the Common Good: May Your Majeſt's Happineſs riſe proportionably as You have rais'd ours: And may God long preſerve Your Majeſty, the Joy, the Glory and Security, of Great Britain, and the Protection of the Liberty of Mankind.

Which Addreſſes Her Majeſty received very graciouſly.

Leipſick, Auguſt 10. N. S. Since the Arrival of Count Wratiſlaw there have been very frequent Conferences between the Miniſters employed in the Mediation and thoſe of Sweden, in order to find out Expedients for compoſing the Differences between the Imperial and Swediſh Courts. King Staniſlaus interpoſes in this Affair with as much Application as if his Crown depended on the Succeſs of their Councils. But the Miniſters of Sweden in the laſt Debate on that Subject made certain Demands, which the Mediators cannot anſwer till they receive new Inſtructions. In the mean time the 4 Swediſh Regiments remain in Sileſia, though Count Wratiſlaw inſiſts upon their being immediately recalled. The Time when the Swedes will march out of this Country is ſtill undetermined: But we are aſſured their Field-Marſhal Reinſchild has received Orders from the King his Maſter to be in a readineſs the latter End of this Week to march at the Head of a very great Detachment. On Saturday laſt the Univerſity of this City held a publick Act in Honour of the Queen of Great Britain, on Occaſion of the happy Union of England and Scotland. All the Foreign Miniſters were invited to be of the Audience. The Ceremony opened with a Conſort of Muſick: After which the Profeſſor Menhemius, who is a Member of the Royal Society in England, introduced the Performances, which were to follow with an elegant Oration. The Exerciſes were performed with much Grace and Order. Mr. Robinſon, the Britiſh Envoy, made his Compliments to the Society for ſo remarkable an Inſtance of their Veneration and Reſpect for Her Majeſty; and after the whole Ceremony was concluded entertained the Foreign Miniſters, the chief Members of the Univerſity and City, with ſeveral other Perſons of Diſtinction, in a very ſplendid Manner.

Copenhagen, Auguſt 13. Letters from Schonen bring Advice, That the Swediſh Detachments, one of 3000 Men, deſigned for Finland, and the other of the ſame Number, for Germany, were ready to be tranſported. The Emperor's Reſident received yeſterday a final Anſwer, That his Daniſh Majeſty could not give the Holſtein-Contingent, till the States of the Circle of Lower Saxony were aſſembled, and that Matter determined in its proper Method: But that Miniſter was at the ſame time told by the Miniſters, That the King of Denmark having not paid the Sums due for his Oldenburg-Contingent for theſe two or three Years laſt paſt, his Majeſty was willing thoſe Sums, which amount to about 70000 Crowns, ſhould be immediately deducted out of the Payment of Subſidies due to him from the Emperor.
